

Proposal for the 2017 Environmental Educators of NC conference - due May 15

Must be completed on line – This is the information that will be needed:

Presentation Title:

Time Format * consider either format (ensures greatest possibility of acceptance)

45 minutes

90 minutes

Presentation Date(s) consider either date (ensures greatest possibility of acceptance)

Saturday, September 30

Sunday, October 1

This presentation addresses the following conference strands (please check all that apply): *

- EE Essentials (Skills that enhance environmental education programs including field methods, natural history content and outdoor education techniques.)
- Paving the Path (Session that are directed to recent graduates or other individuals new to the environmental education field.)
- Lessons Learned (Topics could include business and fundraising models, program development, organization, marketing, or how to tie programs to state and national curriculum.)
- Tried and True (Participants in these sessions will leave with tangible take-aways that can be implemented immediately, including activity kits and other make-and-take ideas.)
- Diversity and Inclusion (An emphasis on environmental education programs, techniques and initiatives with a focus on reaching underserved populations.)

Audience

Non-formal Educators

Classroom Educators

Early Childhood Educators

Elementary Educators

Middle/High School Educators

Adult Educators

Presentation Summary (50-word limit, will be printed in conference packet) *

Detailed Presentation Outline (200-word limit). Describe content of presentation and how the presentation will engage the audience. *